15th March 1961]

Medical Officer, Madurai, to inspect the places concerned and find out whether Andipatti or Govindanagaram was suitable for opening of the proposed Primary Health Centre. Accordingly after an inspection of the places, the District Medical Officer has selected Gandamanaickanur as the place suitable for the purpose. The Director of Medical Services has called for proposals from the Collector of Madurai and the District Medical Officer for the opening of the Centre. On receipt of the proposals, the Director will address the Government for necessary sanction in the matter.
